Writing and the Common Core Standards

The Common Core Standards emphasize writing, along with reading, speaking, and listening, in all disciplines, not just in English Language Arts. Seem daunting? Dispel your fears with workshops presented by National Writing Project Teacher Consultants and the Co-Directors of the UCLA Writing Project. Contact nphear@hotmail.com or visit uclawp.org for registration and further information. $100 enrollment fee.

Save the Dates: February 25, March 3, March 17, and April 21, 2012 8:45am -1:00pm

- Begin with an overview of the Standards. See how writing can become a part of every classroom.
- Explore complex texts and have conversations about them.
- Write to persuade, to explain, to convey real or imagined experiences.
- Try out revision techniques that empower students to write stronger pieces.
- Learn specific protocols designed to foster strong student writing.
- Use the standards to differentiate instruction and assess learning.
